BRAVES ARE BEATEN

Pat Moran's Sluggers Bunch Hits in Two Innings and Trim Stallings' Crew, 7 to 1.

Boston, April 15.—The Braves and Phillies bat-fied in a snowstorm here today, and when the and of the ninth rolled around the invaders were and of the ninth rolled around the invaders were so the long end of a 7 to 1 score. Bunching their hits in the fourth the Phillies scored four runs. Byrne's double, a fumble by Bughes, Cravath's two-bagger, singles by Whittel and Niehoff and a poor throw by Marantville did like trick. Again in the seventh singles by Niehoff, Loderus and Mayer and bits of ragged fielding by the Bares accounted for three more Philadelphia runs. Mayer was invincible. He did not seven a notify the delith. Magent advable and sene a pass until the eighth. Magee's double and schmidt's triple gave the Braves their only run.

To 2 score, an the mound for the clubman, stabled a great game, holding the clerks to three sits, and striking out states. An error prevented in from blanking them.

"Rups" Nethern was the butting star, connecting or three singles and a double, while the fielding of Higherff, and "Tacks" McCarth, a base unning was also of highest order. The score:

Facts Worth Remembering

The best test for efficacy that can be given is trial after a careful, unprejudiced investigation. To those who desire to write, and to those who have already written, for information as to whether the Kin-Po treatment is a dependable, satisfactory remedy for malarial conditions, as well as for drink and drug addiction, the manages ment of the institute would state that the remedy is ment of the institute would state that the remedy is ment of the institute would state that the remedy is a superior if as efficient in this class of cases. Kin-Po is a system cleanner—a vertiable poison chaser—and thereby a remedy for frink and drug addiction, nor is it a "cure-all."
